Description of Violation:

The Stevens Honor Board holds the strong belief that it is important to learn and self-reflect after committing a violation so that students are able to grow from any mistakes made. It is advised that the agreed-upon penalty follows the Honor Board Penalty Matrix, located on the Honor Board website at www.stevens.edu/honor on the "Documents" page. It is recommended that in addition to a grade component, the agreed upon penalty should also include a learning component in the form of either a Penalty Essay or the Ethics Course. Information on the Penalty Essay and on the Ethics Course can be found at www.stevens.edu/honor under the "Documents" page. For more information please visit www.stevens.edu/honor, or email the Honor Board directly at honor@stevens.edu.

Grade Component Penalty (Example: Zero on the assignment):

Learning Component Penalty (Example: Removable Academic Sanction pending the Ethics Course):

By signing this form, I attest that:

1. I agree that the violation, as described above, is accurately portrayed and valued at less than 13% of the final grade in the course.
2. I agree that the action in question gave an unfair advantage over fellow students and/or did not conform to the spirit of the Honor System.
3. I agree the proposed penalty is appropriate. Further, I understand that the Honor Board will discuss the above penalty at its next General Body Meeting and has the right to alter it as necessary.
4. I understand the Honor Board has the right to reopen any case.
5. I understand that this adjudicated action is considered a full violation of the Honor Systems for all purposes, and I, as a student, will be found responsible of an Honor System violation.
6. I, the student, understand that I have the right to request a full investigation within 10 days by informing the Honor Board of such by sending an email to honor@stevens.edu.
